DEPT MR 24971

Somerville, Massachusetts 02144-2516

Dear Mr. Best:

This responds to your request of April 6, 2018, (FBI FOI/PA #1348246-000, our case #0862F-18) to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) for records relating, describing or mentioning James Critchfield, was a Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) spymaster, soldier, and diplomat. The FBI forwarded your request and responsive records to this agency, and they were received in this office on July 27, 2017.

Coordination with another element of this command and a review of the records has been completed. As a result of this review, it has been determined that the records no longer warrant security classification protection and are partially releasable to you. A copy of the records are enclosed for your use.

Information has been sanitized from the records as the release of such information could result in the unwarranted invasion of the privacy rights of the individuals concerned; this information is exempt from public disclosure provisions of the FOIA pursuant to Title 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(c).

In addition, information has been withheld pursuant to Title 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(3) of the FOIA. Exemption (b)(3) pertains to information that is exempt by statute. The applicable statute is p50 U.S.C. 3024i which protects intelligence sources and methods

The withholding of the information described above is a partial denial of your request. This denial is made on behalf of Major General Christopher S. Ballard, Commanding, U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command, who is the Initial Denial Authority for Army intelligence investigative and security records under the FOIA. You have the right to appeal this decision to the Secretary of the Army. Your appeal must be postmarked no later than 90 calendar days from the date of this letter. After the 90-day period, the case may be considered closed; however, such closure does not preclude you from filing litigation in the courts. You should state the basis of your disagreement with the response and provide justification for a reconsideration of the denial.

An appeal may not serve as a request for additional or new information. An appeal may only address information denied in this response. Your appeal is to be made to this office, for forwarding, as appropriate to the Secretary of the Army, Office of the General Counsel.

The records are returned for your disposition (Encl).

If you have any questions concerning this action, please feel free to contact Kyle E. Lee at (301) 677-4060 or electronically at kyle.e.lee6.civ@mail.mil. Please refer to the case number cited above.

Sincerely,

SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

A review of the files contained in the Central Records Facility, Army Intelligence Center, Fort Holabird, Maryland, pertaining to SUBJECT revealed the following information:

GASTALDO entered the Army on 29 January 1941, b6 served at Camp Hood, Texas until 24 November 1942, when he was honorably discharged as a Sergeant to accept a commission as a 2d Lieutenant in Field Artillery O-1822391.

GASTALDO was assigned to Military Intelligence in February 1943 after completing a Military Intelligence course at Camp Ritchie, Maryland; was transferred at the end of the Second World War to Military Intelligence Service Unit attached to G-2, Headquarters United States Forces in Austria, and subsequently became Commanding Officer of the 6695th Military Intelligence Service Unit in Austria. Was relieved 10 December 1946 in Vienna, Austria from active duty as Major assigned to the 7669th Military Intelligence Service Detachment, and appointed civilian Intelligence Officer, GS-11, with same organization AGO #D-070900.

GASTALDO was serving in March 1950 as Intelligence Officer, GS-13, in the Linz Sub-Detachment 7669th MIS, was assigned soon thereafter as Intelligence Analyst, GS-11, with G-2, Headquarters USFA in Salzburg, and was eventually separated from the USFA payroll in April 1951 as a result of his refusal to accept the lower grade; returned to U. S. in June 1951 to attend school under the GI Bill.

Before entering the Army, GASTALDO was variously employed as a bartender and as a steward on ocean liners and was in these connections a member of locals of several Communist-dominated unions; he is also reported to have been "strictly Communistically inclined" in 1933 and 1934, possibly as a result of the difficulty he had in obtaining employment during the depression, but to have come to hate Communism and Communists and to be "intensely loyal" to the United States.

GASTALDO'S last known address is 4279 Katonah Avenue, Bronx, N. Y.
